BLACKFEET INDIANS TO VISIT RICHMOND

Chief Three Bears at Head of Small Tribe From Montana Reservation.

Warriors Who Took Part in Terrible Conflicts Now Members of Peaceful Sightseeing Party.

A tribe of genuine Blackfeet Indians, oming all the way from their home in Glacter National Park, Montana, in paint and feathers, will descend upon Richmond to-morrow morning and redelimend to-morrow merning and re-min here for two days. The tribe, eaded by heary chiefs who have seen experate warfare against both Indian and soldier, is reversing the customary regram and is coming to Richmond a sight-seeing trip, for once to look the white man and the white man's one instead of having to furnish en-trainment for white tourists. The tribe is traveling as the guests of the Great Northern Railway, and we have trip east is the first journey of the Great Northern Railway, and the long trip east is the first journey beyond the reservation for many of the braves and squaws. They will strive in Richmond to-morrow morning at 16 sclock over the Atlanta Coast Line insilway from Charleston, S. C. Although they bring their tepees with them, the Blackfeet will put up at a local hetel while here. They will call on the Governor and Mayor Ainsile and view the "sites" very much as ordinary sightseers. ween 12 and 2 o'clock to-morrow

Relieved 12 and 2 octoor to-morrow the tribe will be at the office of the Richmond Transfer Company, 809 East Main Street, where they will show an exhibit of oil painting of scenes on their reservation.

ACCOMPANIED SHRINERS

A meeting of the Friendly Bible be held this afternoon at 3.20 or of the invitation of a Montana temple of Shriners, who wanted the blackfeet to attend the Imperial Council of the Shriners as a unique feature. Transportation was given by the fullways, and the visit to Atlanta and other Southern cities has from all accounts been something out of the ordinary. From here the tribe goesnorth to Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York to continue their sight-seeing.

Chief Three Bears, ninety-four years of age, is one of the most interesting members of the Blackfeet, having fought in Siteen Indian wars. He still carries the scalps of Sioux Indians, taken back in 1870 and the early '80s, Ills createst feat was a battle at Cut Bank River, where he and twenty-cight or his braves pocketed 250 invading Sioux Indians and slaughtered 198 or them.
